Augusto Duran Ospino, Secretary General of the Communist Workers' Party of Colombia (PCO), has been preparing for the X National Labor Congress to be held in October 1949 by making a campaign tour throughout the Caribbean coast regions. He believes that he will be able to control the votes of the Federacion Nacional de Transportes Fluvial, Maritimo, Portuario y Aereo (Fedenal), which is so large that it will have more delegates at the Congress than any other group. Duran has also named Jorge. E. Bayona, Communist Deputy in the Cundinamarca Assembly and PCO Treasurer, to formulate plans for regaining the places on the Confederation of Colombian Workers (CTC) Directorate which were lost by the PCO at the VII Plenum of the CTC held in late January 1949.*
